ADMINISTRATIVE PAGE

Mrs. MARGARET POWERS, Payroll Clerk, who is in charge of the records for the Lodge and Hotel section of the Yellowstone National Park Company, maintains her residence in Livingston, Montana. She does not go to Gardiner, the summer headquarters of the company, except on the twenty-eighth of the month to make out the monthly payroll. Mrs. POWERS stays until approximately the second or third day of the following month. If she is contacted prior to her visit to Gardiner, she readily furnishes the information from the company's records, and has been very cooperative in the past.

If it is desired that the employment be verified, it is suggested that the lead be set out so that it can be covered within these dates previously mentioned.

The Writer is personally acquainted with Chief Ranger CURTIS SKINNER, who furnished the information that the Applicant did not have a criminal record telephonically on March 7, 1950.

[] The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent

At Ann Arbor, Michigan

Mrs. LAYNE SWISHER, Receptionist, Alumni Catalog Office, University of Michigan, made available their records of the Applicant which reflect he was born August 18, 1920, at Columbus, Montana. He entered the University of Michigan Literature, Science and Arts College September 19, 1939. He entered the University Graduate School June 28, 1946. While enrolled at the university he resided at 707 Oxford Street, 1296 Malden Court, Willow Run Village, and the University Terrace Apartments in Ann Arbor. The Literature, Science and Arts College records were contained in the alumni records and reported he was born August 18, 1920, at Columbus, Montana. He enrolled at the university for the semester of 1939 and received his AB degree in May, 1943. He concentrated in French while at the university. In February, 1940, he was placed on probation because of low grades and remained on probation until June, 1941, when his average grade was "C/".

Miss [] Receptionist, Graduate School, University of Michigan, presented their records for the Applicant which reflect he was born August 18, 1920, in Montana. He received an AB degree from the University of Michigan in 1943. He was admitted to the Graduate School in June, 1946. He received his AM degree June 14, 1947. He maintained a "B" average in the Graduate School. The records further reflect he was a teaching fellow in the French Department during the school years 1946-1947 and 1947-1948. His advisor was Professor FATTERSON.

(DE 123-410)

Mrs. [] Secretary, Romance Language Department, University of Michigan, advised their records reveal the Applicant was a teaching fellow in the department and left the department in approximately August of 1948. She stated she recalled the Applicant and considered him a very nice person of whom she knew nothing derogatory. She advised Professor PATTERSON was the one who employed him and the one who knew him but Professor PATTERSON was now deceased.

b6

Professor IRVING LENARD, Chairman of the Romance Language Department, recalled the Applicant as a quiet, non-aggressive person who did his work satisfactorily. He advised he had very little contact with the Applicant and never knew him socially. However, he knew nothing against the Applicant's character or loyalty.

Professor ABRAHAM HERMAN, Romance Language Department, advised he recalled the Applicant as a very nice person with a good personality. He was of the opinion the Applicant was honest and trustworthy and also a loyal citizen. He stated he would recommend him to a position of trust with the Government.

Mrs. [] Office of Student Affairs, University of Michigan, advised their records reflect the Applicant was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta Social Fraternity.

Confidential Informant Detroit T-2, of known reliability, made available the University of Michigan records containing membership lists of student organizations on the university campus. A review of these records failed to reflect the name of the Applicant.

and resigned June 30, 1949. This record contained nothing unfavorable concerning applicant and set forth his Philadelphia address as 2201 West Venango Street; that he was married; and that he was born August 18, 1920, place not shown.

Dr. GEORGE C. SEIVER, Chairman, Romance Language Department, University of Pennsylvania, advised that applicant was employed as an Assistant Instructor of Spanish under his supervision. He stated VAUGHN was a reputable young man, but not a hard-working person. His services were satisfactory with the exception of occasional complaints from some of his students that he was too sarcastic in criticizing errors in their work. This was brought to applicant's attention and there was no further recurrence.

Dr. SEIVER said that VAUGHN seemed to be a good young American citizen and advised he had no reason to question his loyalty to this country. He informed that applicant was appointed Assistant Instructor with the understanding that in connection with his teaching he would take graduate studies toward his Ph. D. degree. While taking these studies applicant dropped one course without advising Dr. SEIVER. SEIVER explained that the course was dropped by VAUGHN in anticipation of his employment by the State Department. D. degree. Mr. [redacted] stated that applicant was never completely satisfied with academic work and frequently expressed the desire to go to South America, as a Cultural Attache. He expressed familiarity with VAUGHN's present position with the State Department, and stated he knows of no one more sincerely loyal to the United States. He advised that applicant is very capable and careful in planning whatever he undertakes, and that he never had any occasion to question his integrity or loyalty to this country. [redacted] mentioned that VAUGHN has been active in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserves ever since his separation from World War II service and advised that Miss [] Graduate School Office, University of Pennsylvania, produced a record card reflecting that while an Assistant Instructor of Spanish applicant took three courses toward a Ph. D. degree; namely, Introduction to Old French; Experimental Phonetics; and Voltaire. He failed the first-mentioned subject, but received credits for the remaining two courses. In addition, applicant took required work in German Preparation for Translation and Reading, and Russian (Intermediate). He dropped the course in Russian and received no credit.

Miss R. JEAN BROWNLEE, Personnel Officer, College of Liberal Arts for Women, University of Pennsylvania, advised she was not personally acquainted with the applicant, but recalled that he was the subject of complaints by some of the girl students because of his sarcastic attitude regarding their work. Miss BROWNLEE stated that after she reported the matter to VAUGHN's superior, Dr. SEIVER, there was no further recurrence. Miss BROWNLEE knew of no other derogatory information concerning the applicant during his employment here. Nothing came to her attention which would cause her to question his loyalty to the government.

NEIGHBORHOOD

Mrs. [] Plymouth Hall Apartments, 2201 West Venango Street, advised that applicant, his wife and child rented an apartment here during the period he was employed as an Assistant Instructor at the University of Pennsylvania. She stated that applicant and his wife "lived for each other," and as a result kept very much to themselves and associated very little with other tenants. Mrs. [] informed that although applicant was pleasant, his wife was rather demanding in her requests with respect to having telephone calls referred to her when the child was sleeping. She advised that VAUGHN and his wife were respectable tenants; that they satisfied their rent promptly; and that they impressed her as persons of unquestionable loyalty to the United States.

CREDIT and CRIMINAL

The files of the Philadelphia Credit Bureau, Inc., and those of the Philadelphia Police Department contain no record of the applicant.
